2. If you are a healer, you should, without fail, warn the patient that, due to the very high efficiency of the curative and energy effect of the Formula, especially during the first session (because the patient may be connected additionally to a number of new for him energy sources), within 30 minutes after the first session he should drink a large glass of water and avoid physical work and driving. Later, during the next 2-3 hours, he should avoid doing hard physical work and driving at high speed. If this is not possible, you should either postpone the first session or conduct a distant treatment session, when the patient is at home and is able to observe the above limitations.

It should be noted that these limitations are conditioned by the fact that after the first session many patients experience something similar tipsiness and almost 100% feel somewhat drowsy. Those who experience these states to a large extent are not allowed to drive before the “tipsiness” and drowsiness are over.

3. From the beginning of the use of this formula, your body should immediately save an additional amount of water in the cells. The fact that the processes of creation and use of energy within the cells of your body require the appropriate amount of water – so the tissues and organs of your body need new water – for healthy functioning. It is also necessary to remove harmful substances from the body.

Just as in the case of strong antibiotics to drink a lot and when they start using this formula, you need to drink a lot – because the use of the formula – is joining the new powerful forms of energy that are new to the patient's body, especially in the first few hours and days. And just as people add to their body types of energy that that was not enough, just in parallel with this, he must add an additional amount of body fluid.

Pay attention! Active actions require abundant drink! This means if a person feels weak for a long time, or even a few hours, and does not drink much water, but now, after he delivered the above formula, then he recovered and felt a sudden surge of additional forces and began to work actively – then the body of this man needs a lot more fluid!

If people continue to drink the same amount of water, as during weakness, without adding extra liquid, but with the addition of physical activity – it can lead to nausea, dehydration and strong headaches. Why is this happening? The fact is that when a person lies or reduces physical activity – even if he is drinking insufficient fluid – the body does not lose much water. But when physical activity increases, and he drinks enough, his body loses a lot of fluids!

How much extra water should you drink?

Studies have shown that an adult drinks 2-3 liters a day. However, if he is additionally involved in sports for an hour, he must add 2(!) liters of water to the amount of fluid intake. Therefore, if a person using the formula, suddenly passed from weakness to an active physical activity – he has to drink more, at least 1.5 – 3.5 liters of water on the first day using the formula still 1.5-2 liters of water during the second day, starting from the third days and then – drink 1-2 liters more than usual. This means that if prior to the use of the formula people drink 1.5 liters a day – then after he started using, the formula he must first drink 3-4.5 liters per day, second day – at least 3-3.5 liters, and the third days and then – at least 2.5-3.5 liters per day. And only in a few months one can reduce the amount of fluid intake to about what was before, but it is only after consulting a specialist.

Pay attention! Drinking plenty of water – is a major effort, especially in the first few days – it can be very difficult – but it's worth it! Because with the help of this person, using the formula begins to live a new life – much healthier!
